What would happen if the entire community came together to help one another— City government, businesses, residents, the faith community, service groups, schools and sports organizations? Last year we found out! Brea joined the Love Our Cities movement in 2016; the community responded by the hundreds and completed 25 projects throughout the City. Let's top that in 2017, as we celebrate Brea's Centennial!

*Come to the Parade and Picnic
to celebrate
Brea's 100 years!*

Saturday, May 20

9 am • Centennial Parade

Come out with friends and show your spirit as lively entertainment marches along east Birch Street from Associated Road to Voyager Avenue. Be inspired by proud entries representing youth groups, community clubs, musicians and more.

11 am-3 pm • Centennial Picnic

Bring chairs and settle in for a great afternoon at the Brea Sports Park! Food will be sold at 1917 prices by Brea Ministerial Association members. Exhibition baseball games will add excitement, including re-enactment of Brea's 1924 Walter Johnson vs. Babe Ruth event. Plus, enjoy continuous live onstage entertainment, a classic car show, kids activities and more!
