ARTS

Known as the City of Art, Brea offers various events and festivals, workshops, demonstrations, exhibitions, and live theatre performances throughout the year.

Art in Public Places consists of more than 175 public art pieces, which are located throughout the City. The collection includes a wide range of mediums, styles and approaches by national and international artists. Visit CityofBrea.net/ArtInPublicPlaces for more information.

The Brea Art Gallery hosts four exhibitions each year, featuring works of up-and-coming and world-renowned artists. Workshops accompanying the exhibits inspire and motivate. Visit BreaGallery.com.

The Curtis Theatre, an intimate performing arts venue, presents an annual season of live performances which offers a vibrant mix of professional touring artists, and breakout talent. Experience the Extraordinary as the 2017/18 season opens this October. Visit CurtisTheatre.com.

It's a great time to become part of the arts.
